

Case No.: 5:20-cv-00208-LCB

1. Defendants do not oppose this motion, as confirmed in email correspondence between counsel.
2. Defendants filed the Motion under seal because the “proposed operational changes involve sensitive business information that could be made detrimental to Hui Huliau if made public. Under the terms of the Consent

Injunct[ion], plaintiff was required to keep this information in ‘strict confidence’ in recognition of its sensitive nature.” (Doc. 31 at ¶ 3.)

3. Prince’s response addresses the purportedly “sensitive business information” that Defendants desire to keep confidential. Accordingly, Prince requests the Court to allow his response to the Motion to be filed under seal.

WHEREFORE, Prince requests the Court to enter an Order allowing him to file his response to the Motion under seal.

Respectfully submitted this 29th day of May, 2020.
